

You are Invited

Mixed-Methods Research

Thursday, 17 August 2017

13:30 – 14:30pm

Venue: AUT City Campus [Room: WF-711]

[Snack and light refreshment will be provided]

RSVP: Stenly SAJOW / Im KEUN email: autaseanpmg@gmail.com

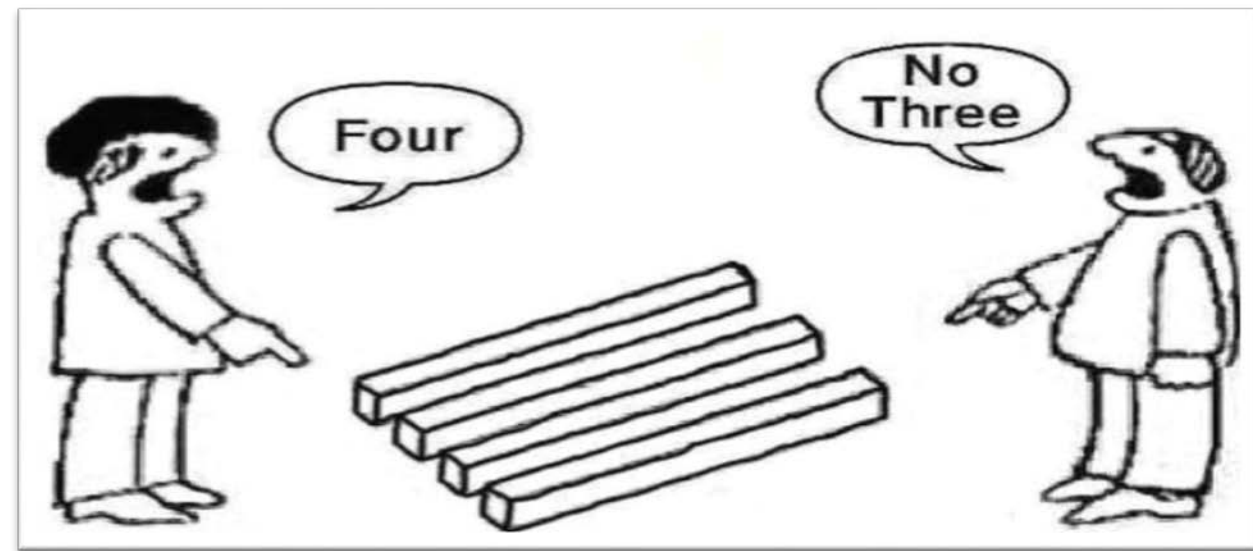

AUT

Do Not Miss It!

This event is organised by:

AUT NZ Scholars and ASEAN Students Peer Mentoring Group

With the supports from the AUT Graduate Research School

Cartoon Source: <https://www.r-bloggers.com/the-most-comprehensive-review-of-comic-books-teaching-statistics/>

About the Speaker:

Tina (Yumei) He, Ms. brings more than 10 years teaching and management experience in some of top universities in China before came to New Zealand.

Her current PhD research title is 'Workplace violence against medical professionals in China: contextual factors and interventions', using mixed-methods approach.

Tina's areas of expertise and interest are occupational health & safety, workplace wellbeing, safety culture, communication & management towards a healthy organisation.